Happy Half-a-year Hooray!

Can you believe Hooray! is already 6 months old? As a special thank-you to each and every one of you who has played at Hooray! we want to extend an invitation to our 6 month birthday! Stop by on Thursday, August 9th and help us celebrate with $6 all-day admission! Enter for a chance to win birthday parties, play passes and so much more. Our celebration wouldn't be complete without face painting and a princess meet-and-greet. Stay tuned for more details!

"My daughter had a great time at Hooray! with her school and insisted we come back and play again!"

Interactive Classes

Interactive classes are a great way for kids to burn off energy while learning basic social and motor skills AND give mom a little break! Each staff-led class is $5 in addition to regular admission.

Have your kids bounce with the babies, tumble with the toddlers or jump with the juniors! Activities include basketball, balance beam and lots of activities with bean bag shapes!

New at Hooray!

If you are a regular at Hooray! or have older kids you might be excited for some new items coming soon to Hooray! In honor of our 6 month birthday we've decided open up the bottom of our play structure and add some interactive panels!

These panels will help kids learn sounds, basic music skills and teach how to repeat patterns.

You can also be on the lookout for new toys inside the village areas! And if any of you find our bull dogs, please return them to Hooray ;)

Parent's Night Out

Fun for the kids and a night out for you - that's what Parent's Night Out is all about! Let the kids burn off energy and enjoy pizza and juice while you enjoy a night to yourselves.

The cost is $25 for the first child and $15 for each additional sibling. This includes pizza, juice and an interactive class for each child!

The next Parent's Night Out event will be on Saturday, August 18 from 6:00-8:30PM. Preregistration and payment is required. Space is limited to call today to reserve your spot!
